

Year 5	Place	Space	Scale	Environmental impact and sustainability	Interconnection
All modules use an approach for assessing what children already know as well as building on the knowledge they have already acquired during their time at Chaddlewood.
North America	The children will learn about the physical features of North America including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mountainous West - Great Plains - Canadian shield - Eastern Region - Caribbean The children will learn about the climate of each environmental region and the link between its north-south, east west-location.	The children will learn how North America is situated in the Northern Hemisphere. The children will explore how North America is made up of 23 different countries and territories.	The children will widen their perspective of the world as they identify North America as one of the seven continents.	The children will learn how North America has five environmental regions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mountainous West - Great Plains - Canadian shield - Eastern Region - Caribbean 	Children use atlases to locate the continent of North America and understand that the majority of this continent sits within the Northern Hemisphere. Children will learn that lines of latitude and longitude are a system of imaginary lines used to describe the location of any place on Earth. Lines of latitude run from east to west and identify how far north or south you are. Lines of longitude run from north to south and identify how far east or west you are.
Egypt: Then and Now	The children will	The children will locate	The children locate	The children will	The children will use

	identify the River Nile is one of the most significant physical features in Egypt. The children will learn about what Egypt is like - that the climate is hot and dry with very little rainfall. 90% of Egypt is desert. 2cm of rain falls annually meaning that people in Egypt are dependant on the River Nile for their water. They will learn about a human feature - the Aswan High Dam and how the impact of the dam is affecting the River Nile and the Nile Delta.	Egypt as a country in North East Africa, bordering the countries of Israel, Libya and Sudan. The Mediterranean Sea and the Red Sea border Egypt. Egypt has a population of 100 million people. Cairo is the capital city.	Egypt as a country within a wider continent in the world, widening the children's perspective from a local to a global understanding.	consider the importance of the River Nile in that 95% of the population live on its banks in a country that has 96% desert landscape. The children will understand how the Aswan Dam was built to control the floods by regulating the flow of the river and how it supplies water for irrigation throughout the year, which has almost doubled the agricultural yield.	atlases and maps to locate the country of Egypt in the North East African continent. The children will learn about the impact of a human feature of a landscape (Aswan High Dam) on a physical feature (Nile Delta).
--	---	---	--	---	--