

Plymouth: Week 2 Challenge Grid

| | | |
|--|--|---|
| Why were the 1950s known as the 'boom' years? | 1. Can you name two towns where the children of Plymouth were evacuated? | Why did the Great British government encourage large numbers of people in the Commonwealth to come and settle in Great Britain? |
| 2. What are the differences between primary and secondary sources? | What challenges did the Windrush experience? | 3. Can you name something that the 1945 Labour government introduced that would change Britain forever? |
| Can you name one of the British youth movements during the 1960s? | 4. How did Plymouth change following World War Two? | Why is the sixties sometimes known as the 'Swinging Sixties'? |

One Point

Two Points

